

Press Release Right to quality primary education

Development Wheel (DEW) is working for Implementing of campaign services for ensuring Teacher's training Quality, Accountability within the government and Accountability to the Community under National Education Policy 2010, Bangladesh supported by AOC/Oxfam Novib (My Rights Campaign). DEW held a workshop/conference on "Capacity Building of Student Council" at National Press Club auditorium on 24th May 2012. Several Student Council members and Primary teachers from Savar Upazila and both from Dhaka, Narshindhi, Shariatpur was participated the event. The event was organized to provide knowledge to the primary students and teachers that they can understand the effectiveness of student council and get familiar with this new concept. Dr. Ajay Roy, Professor, DU and Adviser of AOC, Dr. Nilufar Banu, Chairperson, AOC, Dr. Ainoon Nahar, Professor and Head of the Dept. Anthropology, JU and Mr. Shah Abdus Salam, Executive Director DEW Were in the honorable Speaker panel discussed on this issue to the participants. The event was chaired by Dr. H.K.S Arefin Professor, DU, and Chair Development Wheel. They talked about the concept of student council, its effectiveness, how it works and how it can be a way to improve the total primary education system. The session was facilitated by Mr. Sirajud Dahar Khan who is working on "Student Council" concept and already improved a training module on it. Students took part at a painting competition on the theme "My Dream School" on that morning before the seminar. Several numbers of children who are at primary level took part at that event including special child and also disadvantaged kids and prize distributed to the children artists by the chair of the event.

